

What is an ePortfolio?

An ePortfolio is a digital collection of your artefacts and personal reflections based on your experiences. Together they provide evidence of the process and/or product of a learning experience

ARTEFACTS & REFLECTIONS

PREPARING

Artefacts are evidence of learning such as completed or in-progress assignments, projects, or class activities.

Reflections describe the learning experience from the point of view of the learner. You describe your experience.

PRESENTING

Artefacts can include different types of media such as text, image, video, audio or multi-media sources.

Reflections are a way for you to document and examine your learning experiences. You can also showcase how your skills have grown and your future goals

POWERFUL FOR LEARNING

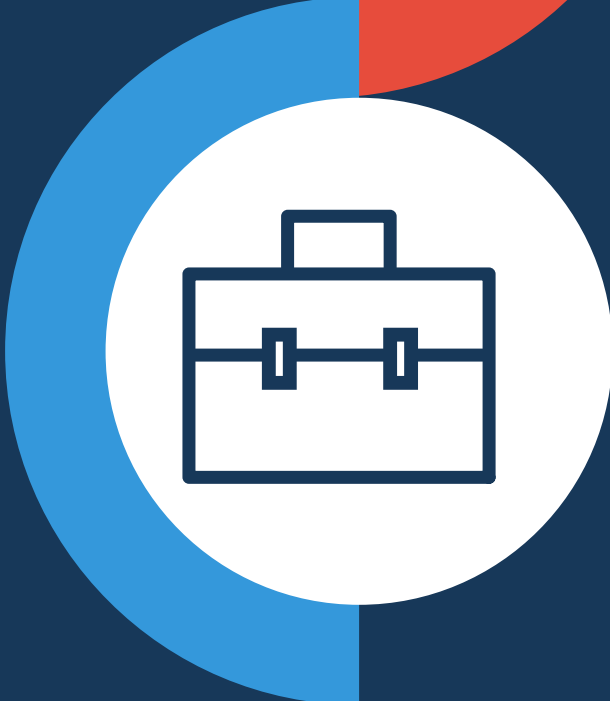

You can demonstrate your competencies (knowledge, skills, and abilities) and the achievement or progress toward meeting learning outcomes.

Reflections encourage you to assess and better identify your competencies/skills based on feedback from instructors, peers, and others.

YOUR RESOURCE

This is a powerful tool you can use to better understand yourself and present your expertise to future employers.

Use this as a resources see how you learn, skills you've developed and what you'd like to work on next to reach your goals.
